After Case Rc 211 ,and Foalan’s injury I couldn't help but tilt in Burma , as I searched the records of the boats who engage in human trafficking I noticed one little report that caught my eyes.

Someone refused the services of those traffickers, someone who must have been once a huge part in it due to the insisting of the latter.

Who is that someone ? A certain Sujun Touge.. Nothing on the record of this fella , absolutely nothing. A simple civilian, worked in the rural restaurant all his life , never had a wife, no kids, and family died during a trip to the Maldives.

Here I do sound a little paranoid perhaps but I could not help but be curious. I took access to the land he bought , in the forest of Tectona grandis .

The land itself is ..well kept.. Nothing to say. The owner pays his taxes like a good citizen. I thought about letting this go, but one permit stopped me. He asked for a hunting permit, nothing unusual for a house in the forest ,sure. But why would you ask for a hunting permit in an area where it is forbidden to hunt endangered species ? And why did it pass ?

So perhaps you know me, I went myself, checked it out for myself.

The entire place is secured with high fences, 5 meters and all around barrel wires. All around it's 1 hectare.

I obviously got it and made my way inside, the entire land has bear traps, I learned it the hard way. As I got trapped in one, a person who I assume was Sujun Touge walked towards me in the night, my camera light and gun flashlight was the only thing I could see.I managed to get up and I attempted to run, I know , not really smart but adrenaline blurred my senses and u.a.o training. The person grabbed me from behind, by my hair and pulled me back . I didn't know who it was yet, and truly the immense pain I was feeling in my leg did not give me the right mindset to truly think in the moment.

I believe I passed out, when I woke up I was in some kind of basement, truly a horror movie scenario. I was tied up , it was a basement that worked as a guest room, oh what a comfort.

No escape , no door except the one which was reinforced metal , bulletproof, no windows , just one camera. I tried to get to it,I got zapped real hard.

Then the door slowly unlocked, multiple locks and details, I broke the bedstand to get one of its feet in grip so I could use it . The person who stood in front of me was a face I saw on every poster and panel.

They looked almost as terrified as me, they kept apologizing and immediately went to my care. Explaining that they use this house as a vacant house but they keep, Sujun Touge seems to have lost his mind or something like this, at least that's what they were stuttering.

They immediately handed me all my stuff, my camera, my gun (with all its bullets) and informed me they called an ambulance and it's waiting outside for me.

But as we walked up the stairs out of the basement, I saw it. Soil underneath their shoes.

I felt something I haven't felt in a while, fear. I felt like I was trapped in a ridiculously small room with something lurking to eat me alive. As if I was simply a prey given to the wolf , something like that.

And for a second I believed that , that they came to save me , that they didn't know , that perhaps all those rumors might have been false. Why help me if they already kidnapped me ? Why let me go ? I would tell everything.

It terrified me that I believed them. I used to think those who actually believed people like them were good ,were just vulnerable and helpless people. That it would never be me. But I fell for it so easily.

As they put a hand on my shoulder , bringing me outside with the ambulance, I understood. I understood it wasn't just a corrupted gang Mafia boss. It was something else, something bigger.

It told me “ watch out for yourself, I have a lot of admiration for your work.” And it gave me a soft smile.

If it could eat me they would , I was nothing at the moment , I felt helpless. Like I didn't play the game correctly yet it let me win, pity perhaps or boredom.

I went in the ambulance and got taken care of, Mariano Ahmadzai was warned and he only asked for a report as I got a good hold on the case , he asked me to stand down for a moment while the entire unit got back on their feet.

I cut my hair short , it's not relevant to the case but I felt like I had to say this. This file won't be put on the case, so I asked for it . And I hope the u.a.o unit doesn't learn about this incident, it was my carelessness after all.
