1897 6 June

Birth of [redacted] , city of Annaba, birth Parents are identified as [redacted]and [redacted] , immigrants of South Africa who moved with the help of French scientific representatives who needed native knowledge. [redacted] is a stay at home wife . The house knows a older sister named [redacted] , older by 3 years. The house had to convert to Christianity due to the oppression of the French troops on the land.

Life in home information :

The house has a hierarchical system , [redacted] will become the man of the house eventually, noting difficulties for it to gain a powerful stance.

[redacted] is not often located in the house , leaving the house for scientific research with [redacted] [redacted] for days , weeks and sometimes months . He returns with what seems to be , gifts . Material resources noted.

[redacted] has ingrained an army like mindset in the hopes that her children will get in the army to escape the colonial troops; methods could , in the current date, be seen as abusive. Debatable data.

1903 , 7 September

Birth of [redacted] , girl , she has inherited half of Hakiro Monde's recognizable eyes , a blessing for her future, physically removable.

1904 12 may

After investigating by the window sights , [redacted] [redacted] has raped [redacted]. It was pinned to the ground of the kitchen floor while [redacted] was not home . Data to be studied after the denial of such an act by the 1925 written denial of accusation by [redacted] itself

: “ no penetration act was made upon me in my childhood, I know nothing of the subject and any rumor of incestuous relationship I had with my biological father is false.”

defense to an accusation held by [redacted] ,1925 , [redacted] to the I.P

No interactions were made, the act is noted in the data, material resources were archived.

Life in the home information:

[redacted] has taken the help of old soldiers who retired from the troops to educate her son , older daughter has been forced into a “traditional” woman role . Important to Note that such favoritism is punished by [redacted] herself towards her younger brother [redacted] when their mother do not watch

[redacted] takes more care affectionately of [redacted] than most , no affectionate friendships noted , [redacted] is no child that leaves the house.
[redacted] has been observed entertaining close quarters relationships with his son , yet showers it with affectionate gestures in opposition to [redacted] . It is the source of many arguments. It seems like the relationship with his son is known, no act has been made to stop it.

1905 February 20

Information on [redacted] :

[redacted] works for the [redacted] , even after many warnings of illegitimate actions against the council . [redacted] [redacted] has kept her as a travelling Intel . Participating in the coast Intel propagation , she arrived in Annaba .

She lives in a Kegare property not yet claimed by the French troops. Meeting with [redacted] on February 20. The meeting went wrong immediately with a threat. A call from the[redacted] has settled the tension . After speaking with the [redacted] ambassador of the South , a deal was made.

1905 October 3

[redacted] was taken from Annaba under the care of [redacted], departure at 03:30 of the morning, arrival in 1905 December 16.

Communication was made by wireless telegraphy and much intervention by Ally boat or coast decking.

Information on the[redacted] and [redacted] relationship Status :

[redacted] has established a familiar and family-like bond with [redacted] early on. Such a relationship has been confirmed by numerous letters sent by [redacted] and members of the [redacted]

[redacted] has been noticed as the first friendship relationship [redacted] has ever had. Material resources confirmed and current relationship maintained.

Without their knowledge , [redacted] has participated in kegare events and assassinations. Putting them on the list of affiliated criminals , with the knowledge of [redacted].

1912 August 5

[redacted] and [redacted] return to Annaba for their coast Intel propagation, now back on the correct line , [redacted] is allowed again to participate in Kegare more specified Intel spread.

No attempts at finding [redacted] were made by the biological family. One attempt was made by [redacted] to speak to Salin , disapproved by the council for the safety of the young girl.

1914 August 3

Official declaration of Europe in War , we have been working to prevent it , no success , development of armed weapons to sides are in construction. Shutdown of the most visible facilities, kegare goes back underwater for the short period of war .

France mobilized colonial troops in Algeria, ambassador of kegare such as [redacted] was killed and in a successful attempt to retrieve the archives of the ambassador, [redacted] has died, autopsy was shown that she has died by gunpowder. Disposition of the body was reserved to [redacted] , she was sent to the sea.

[redacted] did not participate to the funeral , attempting to save what we assume was [redacted] , [redacted] has failed and she was taken away by colonial troops. While [redacted] and [redacted] were killed by [redacted]. Resources archived , only executive ambassadors of the first Division can hold proof material. [redacted] was injured to the left eye by [redacted] , making her half blind.

1914 August 8

Urgent troop movements made by troopship directly sailing through the strait of Gibraltar up to the Atlantic. [redacted] is not listed in the royal navy immediately.

North sea blockade begins between 4-8 August. [redacted] fights with the royal navy.

Resources from the moving HMS LION

[redacted] has met [redacted] and [redacted] were also from Colonial troops and fitted as they could in the royal navy. A friendship status could be fitted for the three of them.

1914 28 August

Heligoland Bight naval battle. War commentary is to be found of the folder 33056 of the Kegare archive. Notes on [redacted] will be made on the file 066.

Participation of [redacted]. Survival of all three of them. Reinforcement of friendship.

Information of the moving HMS LION :

reinforcement of friendship is noted during the aftermath. Wounded in his arm , [redacted] is taken to the nursery where his twin sister [redacted] is . [redacted] meets [redacted].

Royal navy Gunner [redacted] have taken [redacted] under their care.

1914 October 2

Gang-rape of [redacted] is informed by Intel on the Hms Lion through morse communication. Multiple Gunner such as [redacted] and [redacted], one lieutenant [redacted] and one Midshipman [redacted] Photographies were taken during the act as material against [redacted]. such material is now in the Kegare archive center after the latter retrieved them. No defense, no accusation nor sue was made after the death of the remaining unlisted criminals in 1920.

1914 October 20

Engineer warrant officer [redacted] , who has achieved new titles from felations and proven their worth is sent on the HMS Good Hope and will participate in the battle of Coronel November the first. Due to their obedience and Intel they have found , they will be sent on the Hms invisible for the Falklands battle on December 8.

1915 1 January

The relationship between [redacted] and [redacted]is officialised, they are financée and plan to marry when the war ends. Archives from letters they have shared can be found in the Kegare archive.

“ I do not know what this is , but this is the closest to the definition of love you have given me . I wish to write my love to you [redacted], you are the only one for me. This war is killing me , everyone wants so much from me and they are right I need to be better. I am glad you love me when I am miserable.” [redacted] 1914 10 October

No autopsy was done on [redacted] but from [redacted] letters , [redacted] might have raped [redacted] , information immediately denied by [redacted]who has resulted in homophobic insults towards the latter. Who has accused him of sodomy and who later proved it.

[redacted] also mentions the physical abuse of [redacted] on [redacted] where [redacted] would hit her and then “ miserably sob and apologize” from [redacted] letters. [redacted] has not denied such accusation but has justified it.

1915 January 24

Naval battle of the Dogger Bank on the HMS Lion. Participation of the mentioned “friend group” . January 30 [redacted] becomes Gunner and is responsible of [redacted]and [redacted].

[redacted]joined the ship in 1915 after the naval battle of Jutland from May 31 to June 1 1916.

Intel from the moving HMS LION :

[redacted] entertained travesties relations [redacted] [redacted] in exchange for Morphine as [redacted] had grown dependent on it. Either [redacted] [redacted] or [redacted]would cross dress and have sodomy with one another.

[redacted]has entrained homosexual tendencies to [redacted] in letters found in his personal item box taken from him.

“ I do not know what is wrong with me. I have attempted to bury those thoughts by IT is no use , nothing is of use in war. It seems like I have stopped caring about the opinion of others, I will die on this ship either way. I do not believe it is love , but he is my best friend in all this.”
[redacted], 1915 January 5

It is confirmed that [redacted] was not loyal just like [redacted]to their relationship and has engaged on homosexual intimacy with [redacted] [redacted]who would have attempted to convince [redacted] to leave the royal navy with her.

1917 november 17

[redacted] is transferred as Midshipman for the 2nd Heligoland on the ship Repulse.
[redacted] will make a direct request for their “group “ to follow them on the HMS Vindictive.
Which will be accepted.

1918 23 april

[redacted] dies during the battle on Zeebrugge on the HMS Vindictive. [redacted] will speak of a broken pipe to her throat but autopsy by the Kegare Intel will speak of marks on the throat due to a kick. It has later been confirmed that [redacted] has killed her in the confession of 1920.

[redacted] will fall into a depressive state very fast and will share [redacted] dependency on morphine. [redacted] will never speak of their murder and assure that she has died by pipe which the latter will believe.

[redacted] has fallen saddened by the loss of her best friend and the relationship with [redacted] will intensify where both would become more abusive to each other in a mutual progress.

[redacted] will distance himself from the group and remain with [redacted] [redacted] more often.

1918 7 may

[redacted] kills himself in his sleep by overdose , his body is found by [redacted]. [redacted] is now lieutenant commander and does not take care of their old “friend group “ as busier events need their care. They do not attend [redacted]'s makeshift funeral on the ship.

1918 9-10 may

[redacted] dies during the battle. His personal belongings are given to [redacted] who keeps them safe. The group has dismembered.

Information on the moving HMS Vindictive:

[redacted] and [redacted] have had a homosexual relationship and participated in sodomy together one time only . Intel shares that it has only happened one night and they drifted apart.

1918 June 3

[redacted] is killed by poisoning by [redacted] as she was tending his wounds . His body disappeared, taken by [redacted] and given to , what they didn't know , Kegare Intel.

1918 July 17

[redacted] organises a gang-rape of [redacted] in a attempt of vengeance for the pain they have caused her. It is unsuccessful as [redacted] takes down most men and abuses their power to trap [redacted]. [redacted] dies on the same day.

Kegare Intel has then decided [redacted] has made their worth known to the council and was taken by redacted redacted personally. Leaving the Royal Navy and joining Kegare forces.