Mongoose office

The mongoose office opened in 2010 after the closing of the snake office.
The old post office gets transformed into a tourist pole , with new opportunities.

Kenshin Ao and Seiji Vinh have decided to keep working together, reuniting as old collègues from the snake office. They welcomed a new manager Jie Yan in 2013 . The touristic pole becomes famous quite fast, its reputation easily roaming around the world.

The mongoose office has invested in scholar programs , allowing easier travels for education groups and internships. The mongoose office also specialises in reduced prices for visited guides, museum subscriptions and unique experiences.

The snake title is changed to mongoose, which Kenshin Ao takes proudly.
The mongoose office keeps its old ties and contacts, even with a changing master of the house, the office does not change its values.

The mongoose office has made direct contact with Zhongshu Huang to enlarge the office and take new offices under his care. The mongoose office takes the Lanternfly, Donggyeongi and Mossy Frog office under its care and becomes an empire.

Mongoose office works closely with the council of Zhongshu Huang and has given chances for tourists and civilians to enter the once private Fashion industry continental events.

The mongoose office stays true to its values from centuries and does not forget the old offices that have participated and given so much .
