Independent Press

Arts and Display 34th edition

The event takes place on October first in Sydney.

In collaboration with the Velvet Club , its known for its important roll in welcoming Art galleries, conventions and exposition. It is a collaboration between two enormous pillars of the culture and arts. The Arts and Display 34th edition welcomes the gallery of independent artist Keisan Amand. She decided to go on a solo adventure after quitting her theater group "The Lamented" . Her artistic display speaks of a different version from the usual Keisan Amand

Many artistic companies will participate, the entry free, a special gallery for participants from all kinds of institutions

Other continental give out travels passes for students in arts.

